GOVERNING VALUES OF PLEASANTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS

PPS believes ...

- That everyone can learn and excel in a positive environment.
- The quality of education improves with cooperation of student, staff, parents, and community.
- In offering the tools necessary for life-long learning.
- In instilling attitudes to produce responsible citizens who can cope and adapt in an ever-changing global community.
- In encouraging excellence.

Pleasanton is a small town in Buffalo County in the state of Nebraska in the Midwestern United States. At the 2010 census, its population was 341. Pleasanton is nestled along the South Loup River in south central Nebraska. It is a thriving community with great work ethic and a great place to raise a family. The town is located 20 miles north of Kearney. Kearney offers all the amenities of your larger towns and many job opportunities.

Yearly, the community comes together for Old Settlers Days during the first weekend in June. Rosalia Klein Park has a gazebo and a mural of 1900 Pleasanton. The splash park has a fountain and a playground for the community. There are many outdoor activities in the surrounding area to enjoy.
