

HTRS PUBLIC SCHOOLS - #TITANPRIDE

HTRS Public Schools is a consolidated district including the communities of Humboldt, Table Rock, Steinauer, and Dawson.

EMPOWERING ALL LEARNERS FOR TOMORROW'S CHALLENGES

In January of 2016, a new three-story addition was completed on the north end of the building. This allowed the high school students to move into eight new classrooms. The addition also included a new Fitness Center, Commons Area, Music and Wrestling Room. HTRS is in good financial standing, has a supportive community and school board and is able to provide many curricular and extracurricular options for students. The town of Humboldt is located in Richardson county in the southeast corner of Nebraska. A person can easily drive to cities in Iowa, Missouri and Kansas as they are only a few miles away.

Humboldt offers an exciting blend of history, recreation and scenic beauty. You can spend a night at Stalder's Bed & Breakfast known as the Historic Gandy House. The City Lake Park located in the South part of town features two fishing lakes, tent & RV camping with electrical hookups, swimming pool, tennis court, playground area, ball fields and three picnic shelters.

Steinauer is located 11.5 miles northwest of Pawnee City. For nature lovers and birdwatchers, Bowwood State Wildlife Management Area is two miles south of Steinauer. The 320 acres that make up Bowwood include grasslands, two ponds, croplands, and wooded areas. The community of Table Rock is known as the Museum Town, because of their preservation of historic buildings. It is also known to have a few ghost stories.
