

NORTH PLATTE PUBLIC SCHOOLS HOME OF THE BULLDOGS

The purpose of the North Platte Public School District (NPPSD) is to prepare all students to be productive, responsible citizens in a safe, caring, supportive learning environment. Our direction is to prepare every student for success through high-quality educational programs delivered by highly effective educators who use innovative, researched-based strategies in a safe, supportive environment in collaboration with, family, businesses, and community members.

North Platte is a city in Lincoln County, Nebraska. It is located in the west-central part of the state, along Interstate 80, at the confluence of the North and South Platte Rivers forming the Platte River. The population was 23,390 in 2020.

North Platte Public School District is dedicated to providing the highest quality education to 3,600 students from pre-K through grade 12. The district's purpose is to prepare students to be productive, responsible citizens in a safe, caring, supportive learning environment.

The district's direction is to prepare every student for success through high quality educational programs delivered by highly effective educators who use innovative, researched-based strategies in a safe and supportive environment in collaboration with family, businesses, and community members.

North Platte offers tanking on the Platte River, riding mountain bikes through Potter's Pasture as well as horseback riding, shooting sports, fun on the lakes, and spacious public lands. There are many museums, monuments, and historic markers throughout the community. North Platte has interesting shops, galleries, and a theatre to go to. Activities like go-karts, bowling, arcade, and children's rides mean the kids will have plenty to do. Buffalo Bill Ranch State Historical Park is also located near North Platte, a Nebraska living history park about Buffalo Bill Cody. The park includes his actual house known as Scout's Rest Ranch.
