

BOONE CENTRAL SCHOOLS

BUILDING CHARACTER - CREATING OPPORTUNITY - STRIVING FOR SUCCESS

Albion, the county seat of Boone County, lies in the Beaver Valley in central Nebraska. Residents of Albion are fortunate to live in such a clean, safe community and boast that is a great place to raise a family. Albion is 50 miles SW of Norfolk and 40 miles NW of Columbus. The school district has an enrollment of 683 students PK – 12 who come from Albion, Petersburg and the surrounding area. The district offers a 3- and 4-year-old section of preschool. The district also includes an outdoor education classroom at the Olson Nature Preserve (ONP), which is located between the two communities. Boone Central Schools has a student-managed Theatre in Albion, tied to entrepreneurship curriculum. The district has built partnerships with many local businesses in a Career Academy model unique to the rural school.

There are many recreational activities available in Albion County including the Albion Country Club, Boone County Raceway, Niewohner Event Center, Boone County Fitness Center, Albion Family Aquatic Center, Gateway Theatre, Boone County Trail System, Olson Nature Preserve, and The Village Campus – Petersburg. The communities also have a Booster Club, Albion Education Foundation, Albion Chamber of Commerce, Albion Economic Development Corporation, Boone County Development Agency, Boone County Emerging Leaders Academy, Petersburg Community Club, Petersburg Industrial Development Corporation and Petersburg Legion Club and Auxiliary.

Boone Central Schools is seeking a superintendent who will be proactive in recruitment and retention of quality staff. They would like to continue offering students a multitude of academic and extracurricular opportunities. The district has a strong financial position to maintain. A leader in the district will be able to create a smooth transition and possess the ability to grow quality interpersonal relationships.
