

PERKINS COUNTY SCHOOLS

The mission of Perkins County Schools is to develop capable, responsible, lifelong learners who demonstrate those skills necessary for academic and occupational success in a global society.

Perkins County School District is located in Grant, NE. Grant has a great location close to Ogallala, 70 miles from North Platte, and 210 miles from Denver. The district offers a wide variety of extra-curricular opportunities for students including FFA, Quiz Bowl, Band, Performing Arts, and Speech. The district is financially stable. The school receives strong support from the community and has a committed staff.

The local amenities include a grocery stores, insurance agencies, restaurants, banks, library, churches, senior center, auto repair shops, lumber store, gas stations, veterinarian, chiropractor and health clinic. Recreational activities include a New Swimming Pool, City Park, 9-Hole Golf Course, Fitness Center, Library, Youth Programs for Soccer, Winter Basketball and Summer Ball. Organizational community groups available include Perkins County Booster Club, Perkins County Schools Foundation, Perkins County Chamber of Commerce, Grant Rotary Club, Perkins County Youth Council, Grant Lions Club, Perkins County Community Foundation, Perkins County Health Services Foundation, Hastings Memorial Library Foundation, and 4-H. Additional information on the community can be found at www.grantnebraska.com.

The district is looking for an innovative leader in teacher recruitment, retention, and development. This individual should have knowledge of expanding career pathway opportunities, experience with budget and updating facilities, and the ability to lead the district and board through long-range goal planning.
