MCPHERSON COUNTY SCHOOLS

SMALL TOWN VALUES, BIG TIME OPPORTUNITIES!

NASB is accepting applications for Superintendent of Schools on behalf of McPherson County Schools. McPherson County Schools is a Class I school and is accredited by the NDE. The school is located in the community of Tryon, 30 miles northwest of North Platte in the Sandhills. McPherson County Schools exist to provide the necessary education to ensure that all students achieve college/career readiness to become responsible citizens capable of participating in a changing society.

McPherson County Schools houses under 100 students in grades K-12. Due to the small size, staff members are extremely aware of students' skills, needs, interests, and accomplishments. Elementary courses are ability grouped. High School Courses include all traditional academic and CTE courses with an emphasis on agriculture and welding. High school students have the opportunity to participate in all traditional extra-curricular activities. Involvement from the community is strong. The following civic organizations are active: MCS Improvement Club, VFW, County Fair Board, and the Volunteer Fire Department.

MCPHERSON COUNTY SCHOOLS EXIST TO PROVIDE THE NECESSARY EDUCATION TO ENSURE THAT ALL STUDENTS ACHIEVE COLLEGE/CAREER READINESS TO BECOME RESPONSIBLE CITIZENS CAPABLE OF PARTICIPATING IN A CHANGING SOCIETY

MCPHERSON COUNTY SCHOOLS IS LOOKING FOR AN APPLICANT WHO CAN:

- Ensure continuous improvement of academic materials and student performance
- Work collaboratively for the benefit of the district and demonstrate an open communication style
