BAYARD PUBLIC SCHOOLS

EVERY STUDENT, EVERY DAY, IT'S A FACT!

NASB is accepting applications for Superintendent of Schools on behalf of Bayard Public Schools. The mission of Bayard Public Schools is to partner with parents to provide a successful educational experience and diverse opportunities for students. They have recently completed a strategic planning process that serves as a road map to ongoing success, and has updated facilities including multiple gyms, excellent track, beautiful auditorium, and FFA Greenhouse.

Bayard is located in Western Nebraska, serving students Morrill, Banner, Scottsbluff and Box Butte Counties. Bayard is situated in the scenic Panhandle at the base of the famous Chimney Rock landmark along the Oregon Trail which rises in front of the Wildcat Hills stretching above the North Platte River Valley. The community of Bayard has 1,197 residents. Bayard has many active community groups and organizations for youth including American Legion Auxiliary, American Legion Club, Bayard Federation Wrestling, Bayard Organized Baseball, Bayard Tigers Booster Club, Bayard Volunteer Fire & Rescue, Bayard Volunteer Fireman's Auxiliary, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Chimney Rock Pioneer Days, Citizen Support Education, Men's Golf League, Neighborhood Watch, Pathfinders, VFW, and Youth Church Organizations.
