LOUP CITY PUBLIC SCHOOLS

BETTER READERS, BETTER LEARNERS, BETTER CITIZENS

NASB is accepting applications for Superintendent of Schools on behalf of Loup City Public Schools. Loup City Public Schools is a Class II district, and is accredited by the NDE. The consolidated district serves the communities of Ashton, Loup City, and Rockville. Loup City is located in rural central Nebraska in Sherman County and has a population of approximately 1,000 people.

Loup City Public Schools is committed to Empowering Continual Success. The district's goal is to help every student reach their potential by providing the resources, guidance, and opportunities necessary for academic and personal growth. LCPS has cooperative ventures for the library, birth to 3, pre-school, after school programs and summer school programs. High School offerings are enhanced through the use of career education, internships, and dual credit classes. Loup City has an activities coop with Arcadia Public Schools.

Local recreational activities include Sherman County Reservoir, Bowman Recreation Area, Jenners Park, Loup City Swimming Pool, Loup City Golf Course, Petersen Park Ball Fields, and Tennis/Pickleball Court. Organized community groups are the Chamber, Boosters, PTO, Ball Association, Teammates, Knights of Columbus, Sons of American Legion, Golf Leagues, and Quilting Group.
